INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY OF MAJOR FINDINGS

Since 1990, state and federal bank regulators have been required to make public their ratings of the performance of individual banks in serving the credit needs of local communities, in accordance with the provisions of the federal Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) and its Massachusetts counterpart. And since 1991, the Massachusetts Affordable Housing Alliance (MAHA) has issued annual reports offering a comprehensive listing and analysis of all CRA ratings of Massachusetts banks and credit unions. This is the twenty-eighth report in this annual series. Since 2011 these reports have also included information on the CRA-like ratings of licensed mortgage lenders issued by the state's Division of Banks in accordance with its CRA for Mortgage Lenders regulation.

As defined for this report, there were 140 "Massachusetts banks" as of December 31, 2018. This includes not only 118 banks that have headquarters in the state, but also 22 banks based elsewhere that have one or more branch offices in Massachusetts.<sup>1</sup> Table A-1 provides a listing of the 140 Massachusetts banks and their current CRA ratings.<sup>2</sup> (The 24 federally-chartered banks and the 11 banks chartered by other states receive ratings only from their federal regulators; the 105 Massachusetts state-chartered banks receive ratings from both Massachusetts and federal regulators.)<sup>3,4</sup>

Banks that operate in more than one state receive separate federal CRA ratings for each state as well as an overall CRA rating; for such banks, this report uses the CRA rating for their Massachusetts operations rather than the overall rating.<sup>5</sup> Table A-2 provides information on the 41 banks that have branches both inside and outside of Massachusetts; these banks are shown in italics in Table A-1.<sup>6</sup>

Table A-3 provides a listing of the current CRA ratings of the state's 66 state-chartered credit unions. (Federally-chartered credit unions are not covered by CRA.) Table A-4 provides a listing of all current CRA ratings of currently-licensed mortgage lenders.

<sup>1</sup> This report's definition of "Massachusetts Banks" excludes trust companies that specialize in serving investors; these banks do not offer retail banking services and most of them have no deposits in their Massachusetts branches. One exception: this report does include State Street Bank & Trust, the state's largest bank in terms of deposits.

<sup>2</sup> It is interesting to note, by comparing the first and last columns in Table 3, that the current number (140) of "Massachusetts Banks" is now less than one-half of the number in 1993 (286). All of the banks in 1993 had their headquarters in Massachusetts.

<sup>3</sup> In recent years, CRA ratings of state-chartered banks have almost always been the result of a joint examination by the state and the FDIC (resulting in a single performance evaluation with both agencies' names on the cover) or of a concurrent examination by the state and the Fed (resulting in separate performance evaluations with the same exam date on the covers). The two ratings resulting from these joint or concurrent exams have always been the same during the last five years except in those relatively few cases where the state rating has been "High Satisfactory."

<sup>4</sup> Although the eleven banks chartered by other states that have Massachusetts branches are subject to oversight by the state's Division of Banks for their in-state activities, the Division has not awarded any CRA ratings or public performance evaluations to any of these banks. The other eleven out-of-state banks with branches here are federally-chartered and therefore not subject to state CRA oversight.

<sup>5</sup> To be more precise, banks with branches in more than one state receive not only an overall CRA rating, but also (1) a separate rating for each multistate metropolitan statistical area (MMSA) within which they have branches and (2) a separate rating for each state (the "state" rating excludes any part of the state covered by a MMSA rating). Since most of the Massachusetts activity of Bank of America, Citizens, People's United, and Santander is within multistate MSAs (e.g., the Boston MA-NH MSA), their "Massachusetts" CRA ratings are based on evaluation of only a small portion of their activity within the state. Therefore, their ratings in this report are those for these multistate MSAs.

<sup>6</sup> Although Capital One Bank's "cafes" are not counted as branches by the FDIC, the OCC evaluates that bank's CRA performance in Massachusetts as if they were. For this reason, Capital One is included in this report as a bank that has branches both outside and inside Massachusetts.

Tables 1-8 present information about the distribution of the most recent CRA ratings of banks, credit unions, and licensed mortgage lenders as of year-end 2018; about the distribution of CRA ratings awarded during the calendar year 2018 and during earlier years; and about the number and distribution of CRA ratings awarded annually by each of the federal bank regulators and by the state's Division of Banks. Some of the notable findings contained in those tables may be summarized as follows:

- Of the 82 CRA ratings awarded to Massachusetts banks during 2018, sixteen (19.5%) were “Outstanding.” This is a dramatic increase from the share of “Outstanding” ratings in the previous three years (7%, 10%, and 12%). This share is approaching the level in the 2011-2013 period, when more than 20% of all ratings were “Outstanding,” although it is still well below the level in the 2005-2007 period, when over 30% of all ratings were “Outstanding.” For federal regulators, the “Outstanding” share was 18.8% (9 of 48 ratings); for the state, the “Outstanding” share was 20.6% (7 of 34). (See Tables 1 and 2.)
- When each bank is classified by its most recent CRA rating, 15.2% of all banks had a most recent rating of “Outstanding” at year-end 2018. This reverses a four-year downward trend from 22.2% in 2013 to 13.5% in 2017, which was the lowest share of “Outstanding” ratings since 1993. Another 9.4% of banks had a most recent rating of “High Satisfactory,” and 74.6% of banks had a most recent rating of “Satisfactory.” Just one bank had a most recent rating of “Needs to Improve,” down from five one year earlier. Only one bank, down from five at the end of 2017, had a most recent CRA rating of “Needs to Improve” – OneUnited Bank.<sup>7</sup> (See Tables 3 and A-1.)
- Only five of the state’s ten biggest banks were rated “Outstanding” in their most recent CRA exams: State Street (#1), Citizens (#3), TD Bank (#5), Eastern (#6), and Boston Private (#10). Until four years ago, it was routine for all ten of the biggest banks to have ratings of “Outstanding.” Then the number of “Outstanding” ratings among the top ten banks fell to eight at the end of 2014, seven at the end of 2015, eight at the end of 2016, and five at the end of 2017. Bank of America (#2), Santander (#4), First Republic (#7), Rockland Trust (#8) and Berkshire Bank (#9) have most recent ratings of “Satisfactory.” Banks are ranked by total in-state deposits as reported by the FDIC for mid-2018. (See Table A-1 for ratings of all individual banks.)
- When banks are classified, for each regulator, by the year in which they most recently received a CRA rating, the data reveal that almost two-thirds (65.0%) of Massachusetts banks have received at least one CRA rating (federal and/or state) within the past two years and that only six banks have not received any CRA rating within the last five years.<sup>8</sup> (See Table 4.)
- For the fifth consecutive year, only two credit unions – Jeanne D’Arc CU in Lowell and Workers’ CU in Fitchburg – have “Outstanding” ratings (3.0% of the 66 current state-chartered credit unions), while

<sup>7</sup> OneUnited’s rating for Massachusetts was “Needs to Improve,” while its overall rating was “Satisfactory.” Although the bank’s headquarters are in Boston, its Massachusetts branches accounted for only 7% of its total deposits and 5% of its total loans. The bank’s performance in Florida (4% of loans and 10% of deposits) was also rated “Needs to Improve.” However, OneUnited’s California branches accounted for 83% of deposits and 91% of loans, and the bank’s rating for California was “Satisfactory.”

<sup>8</sup> Table 4 and the summary statistics in this paragraph provide one indication of the timeliness with which regulators are awarding CRA ratings. Ideally, the performance of each regulator would be compared to its own stated policy on the frequency of CRA examinations and ratings. However, this would be a complex task, beyond the scope of the present report. Complexity results from (1) the fact that mandated examination frequency depends on the asset size of the bank and on the bank’s previous rating (for the Fed and the FDIC, it also depends on the bank’s “Compliance Rating,” which is not public) and (2) the fact that the policies of the three federal regulators differ significantly among themselves, and from the policies of the DoB. The Division of Banks’ policy is in its Regulatory Bulletin 1.3-105. The Federal Reserve’s policy is contained in its Consumer Affairs Letter (CA 13-20). The FDIC’s policy is in Section II-12.1 of its Compliance Examination Manual. The OCC’s policy can be found by a Google search for “How often does the OCC conduct a CRA examination?”

eight more (10.6%) have ratings of “High Satisfactory.” Only one credit union has a rating of “Needs to Improve.” Only five credit union ratings were awarded in 2018, following only eight ratings in 2017; this is far below the level needed to provide a rating to each credit union “at least once every 48 months,” as specified in state policy.<sup>9</sup> As of year-end 2018, fifteen credit unions (22.7% of the total) had not received a CRA rating based on an exam dated within the last five years; this is seven more than at the end of 2017 and nine more than at the end of 2016. (See Tables 5, 6, and A-3.)

- Eighteen licensed mortgage lenders (LMLs) received CRA for Mortgage Lenders ratings during 2018; one rating was “High Satisfactory,” three ratings were “Needs to Improve,” and the other fourteen ratings were “Satisfactory.” Of the 69 currently-licensed LMLs that have ever received CRA for Mortgage Lender ratings, four have current ratings of “High Satisfactory,” 59 have current ratings of “Satisfactory” and six have current ratings of “Needs to Improve.” (See Tables 7 & 8; Table A-4 provides selected information for each of these 69 lenders.<sup>10</sup>)
- The Division of Banks remains far from compliance with its stated policy of examining each licensed mortgage lender (LML) “at least once every 48 months.”<sup>11</sup> Of the 86 currently-licensed LMLs that were qualified for coverage under the state’s CRA for Mortgage Lenders regulation by reporting 50 or more Massachusetts loans in both 2016 and 2017 HMDA data, only 48 (55.8% of the total) have received a CRA rating within the last four years. Twelve additional lenders (14.0%) received ratings in 2014 or earlier and 26 lenders (30.2%) have never received a CRA rating.<sup>12</sup> Maintaining compliance with its stated policy would require approximately twenty ratings per year;<sup>13</sup> the Division is now close to that pace by awarding eighteen ratings in 2018. (See Table 7.)
- Among the 26 currently-licensed CRA-eligible LMLs that have never received a rating are four of the top twelve, as ranked by total number of 2017 Massachusetts loans: Quicken Loans (ranked #1), CrossCountry Mortgage (#8), Homebridge (#9), and Caliber (#12). Quicken, which has been far above the fifty-loan threshold for ten years, received a Consent Order, rather than a rating, as a result of a recent exam.<sup>14</sup> On the other hand, eleven of the 26 never-rated lenders became newly covered by CRA for Mortgage Lenders on the basis of their 2016 and 2017 lending.

<sup>10</sup> In addition to the 69 lenders included in the body of Table A-4, the first note to that table lists the twenty-one not-currently-licensed lenders that have received CRA for Mortgage Lender ratings.

<sup>11</sup> This policy is in the Division’s Regulatory Bulletin 1.3-105, Section 2.2. An exception to this policy is that LMLs with ratings of “Outstanding” or “High Satisfactory” will have their next CRA examination begin “no sooner than 60 months following the prior Division CRA examination.”

<sup>12</sup> The 69 current ratings noted in the text and listed in Table A-4 include nine ratings of currently-licensed lenders that did not make 50 or more Massachusetts loans in both 2015 and 2016. Table 7 includes ratings awarded in previous years to LMLs that are no longer licensed in the state, but Tables 8 and A-4 include only LMLs licensed as of December 31, 2018.

<sup>13</sup> “Approximately” is used because the number of CRA-eligible LMLs continually varies. LMLs become CRA-eligible by becoming newly licensed by the state and/or by initially meeting the threshold of at least fifty loans in two consecutive years. LMLs lose their CRA-eligibility by becoming unlicensed and/or if their number of Massachusetts loans falls below the threshold.

<sup>14</sup> The exam, dated (i.e., begun) August 2, 2016, was unable to evaluate Quicken’s lending performance because of serious problems with the validity of Quicken’s HMDA data. The Consent Order, dated April 20, 2018, mandates that Quicken remedy these problems; it also applies to Quicken’s affiliate, One Reverse Mortgage, LLC.

For Additional Information:

- A great deal of information on the CRA (Community Reinvestment Act) in general, and on the CRA evaluation/examination/rating system in particular, is readily available on the web sites of the state's Division of Banks (www.mass.gov/orgs/division-of-banks) and of the federal bank regulators: the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (www.fdic.gov); the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (www.occ.treas.gov); and the Federal Reserve (www.federalreserve.gov).
- The web sites of each of the three federal regulators (given just above), provide searchable databases of all of the CRA ratings that they have ever provided. For example, these databases can be searched by state, by year, and/or by bank name. The lists of banks/ratings that result from these searches provide links to the individual Performance Evaluations, which can then be read on-line, down-loaded, or printed out.
- The website of the Massachusetts Division of Banks (given just above) provides two lists of current CRA ratings, also with links to individual Performance Evaluations. One list is of CRA ratings of banks and credit unions. The second list is of ratings of licensed mortgage lenders under the state's CRA for Mortgage Lenders regulation. The lists provided by the DoB cannot be filtered or sorted, and they are much less comprehensive than the searchable databases provided by the three federal regulators. In particular they provide no information about or access to (1) ratings and Performance Evaluations of lenders that are no longer active and (2) previous ratings and Performance Evaluations of lenders who have received more than one.
- The Federal Reserve's National Information Center offers an "Institution Search" function that can provide up-to-date information on the status and history of any individual bank, past or present. Notes: The rating of "High Satisfactory" became available to Mass. regulators -- but not to federal regulators -- in mid-1997.
No Massachusetts bank has received a rating of "Substantial NonCompliance" since 1992.

* Ratings shown through 2010 are those of the OTS, which also gave one rating ("Sat") in 2011 before merging into OCC.
Ratings shown for 2011 and later are those of the Fed, which gave between 0 and 2 ratings per year before 2011.

Italic type indicates the 41 banks with branches both inside and outside of Massachusetts.

See Table A-2 for more information on all banks with branches both inside and outside of Mass.

* indicates six banks with potentially confusing recent names, including from name changes within the last four years:

BankFive is, officially, Fall River Five Cents SB and is listed under latter name by regulators

Coastal Heritage Bank was, until December 2015, Scituate FSB

Cornerstone Bank was, until June 2017, Spenser Savings Bank

Envision Bank was, until March 2018, Randolph Savings Bank

Equitable Bank was, until July 2016, Weymouth Bank; Equitable Coop Bk was merged into it at time of name change.

Main Street Bank was, until April 2017, Marlborough SB

^ indicates two banks whose most recent federal CRA rating is from a different regulator than their current federal regulator

indicates six banks whose rating for MA (shown in table) differs from their overall CRA rating. Overall ratings were:

Boston Private - HS; Farmington Bank - OUT; Northeast Community - OUT; Northern Trust - OUT;

OneUnited - SAT; Webster Bank - OUT.

@ because Bank of America's overall rating was lowered one step because of fair lending violations, I have accordingly also lowered its reported CRA rating for Massachusetts by one step, from OUT to SAT.

Notes: This table ignores trust or investment banks with only branches that have no or minimal deposits.

Except for Capital One, all banks in this table were in the corresponding table last year.

^ BankFive's official name, used by the FDIC and the Fed, is Fall River Five Cents Savings Bank

* Capital One is included in this table, and this report, because the OCC essentially treats its Massachusetts "cafés" as if they were branches
